CRESTWOOD ADVISER

604 FOR CRESTWOOD!

After one false start, months of challenges, anxiety and a huge push from dedicated volunteers Crestwood has finally found its way onto the nation’s ZIP code map!

“This was a community effort,” said Mayor Lou Presta. “This is a success that came about because Crestwood residents came together to make it happen.”

The news that Crestwood “went over the top” in their response to U.S. Post Service (USPS) surveys came late Monday, May 2nd, when officials in Washington, D.C., notified Mayor Presta that a majority of the responses received favored Crestwood having its own ZIP code and the number of responses received totaled over 50 percent of the number of residences and commercial properties in the Village. Meeting those two requirements were critical in winning approval from the USPS to assign Crestwood its own ZIP code.

“I am absolutely thrilled by the response from our citizens,” said Crestwood Trustee Theresa Flynn. “I want to spend the next several days thanking all the volunteers and supporters who turned out to make this happen for our village.

“Our own unique identifying marker, a new ZIP code,” Flynn continues, “provides retailers with better marketing data to support future planning of shops and services within our Crestwood community. A ZIP code hosts information for a multitude of agencies. We do not want to be miscounted or underrepresented. The melding of a ZIP for two towns has been a longtime frustration as well as a wrongly imposed taxation. Again, I am so appreciative of the homeowners and businesses that made the change possible. It was truly a community effort fostered by many volunteers including Board members, staff, and advocates within our condos and apartments.”

The fight to win a ZIP code for Crestwood was begun last year and postal officials declared that the initial response to the first survey was not sufficient to justify a new ZIP code. But elected officials from Crestwood mounted a challenge and secured the support of Congressman Bobby Rush to examine the way that results were tabulated in that initial drive. An investigation into the earlier count uncovered inconsistencies in the manner in which Crestwood’s survey was conducted in comparison to other municipalities in the area. To settle the dispute, postal officials permitted a second survey to be issued and tabulated the results in a closely monitored method.

“I want to thank Congressman Bobby Rush and the U.S. Postal Service for their efforts to make things right for the people of Crestwood,” said Mayor Presta. “Now we can move forward in seeking our own postal facility here in town that makes it much easier for our seniors to obtain postal service and our commercial enterprises to do business with the post office,” Presta concluded.

There are currently 163 separate ZIP codes in Cook County. Even smaller municipalities such as Robbins have their own ZIP code assigned. Crestwood will soon be the 164th municipality to have a ZIP code allowing it the national recognition and autonomy that comes with those five digits

Village Thanks Residents for Successful Crestwood Cleanup Day

Crestwood cleanup day was a huge success thanks to the many sponsors and Mayor Presta. Instead of the normal home pickup by Republic Services and Public Works, the Village put a little twist on getting rid of hard-to-dispose-of items and recyclables. The list of items that were brought up to the CRWC included all types of textiles, paints, automotive products, old computers, televisions and other electronics, pills and ointments, along with paper shredding.

The mayor called for all hands on deck to get rid of the hard-to-dispose-of useless and unwanted items. The Police Department coordinated an opportunity to shred old paperwork for the Special Olympics along with expired pills and ointments. Public Works took all old paints, oil, antifreeze and gasoline that had been stored in residents’ garages for a long time. VetTech came out to dispose of any computer processors and equipment. These products will be broken down by vets and properly recycled. Crestwood Thrift Center took unwanted textiles to be recycled. Mayor Presta, with some help from First Midwest Bank, covered the cost of 384 televisions which were brought up to the Crestwood Rec Center. Each television cost $20 to be properly disposed of, making for a grand total of $7,660 to make this possible. Mayor Presta, Trustees Bill Pieroth, Tony Benigno, and Dan Jurka were in attendance, helping out Public Works to unload anything that residents had brought up to the Crestwood Rec Center that would be recycled or disposed of properly.

Republic Services, along with Public Works did their usual great job with diligence while collecting all types of furniture, along with construction products and yard waste throughout the entire village.

The mayor would like to give a big thanks to Bill Graffeo for coordinating this huge effort, along with Public Works, First Midwest Bank, VetTech, Pass It On Thrift Center, Crestwood Police Department, EMA, and his fellow Trustees who made this Crestwood cleanup bigger and more successful than any other in the past.

Letter From Mayor Lou Presta

Greetings!

Well, it looks like the warm weather is finally taking hold and we can put aside our fears of a sudden frost harming our flowerbeds! I hope that everyone is taking advantage of these days to stroll or play in one of our parks, visit the shops here in Crestwood or take in a Thunderbolts game at the ballpark.

I recently read a story in the newspaper that claimed that homes in Midlothian were selling faster than in any other town in Illinois. I did some digging and discovered that that analysis was made based upon ZIP codes, and Midlothian was the only town appearing in the 60445 ZIP code area. So the fact is that homes in Crestwood and Midlothian are selling faster than any other towns in Illinois. That doesn't surprise me, because according to the latest data from our friends in the real estate industry, the average time for a home to remain on the market the past 12 months is just 58 days. That is in comparison to 2014 when the average time on the market was 81 days.

Crestwood is a hot real estate market both commercially and residentially. We are in talks now with a home developer seeking to bring 22 new single-family homes to our village and Valley View Landscaping has taken out a permit for a new 70,000-square-foot facility in our industrial park. We also have a new Italian café being opened in what was the Copper Still Restaurant on Cicero Avenue. With a rebate in property taxes returned to property owners, new shops and restaurants opening, improved parks and recreation space, great schools and a pleasant, safe community, Crestwood is quickly becoming the village of choice for both young families and retirees.

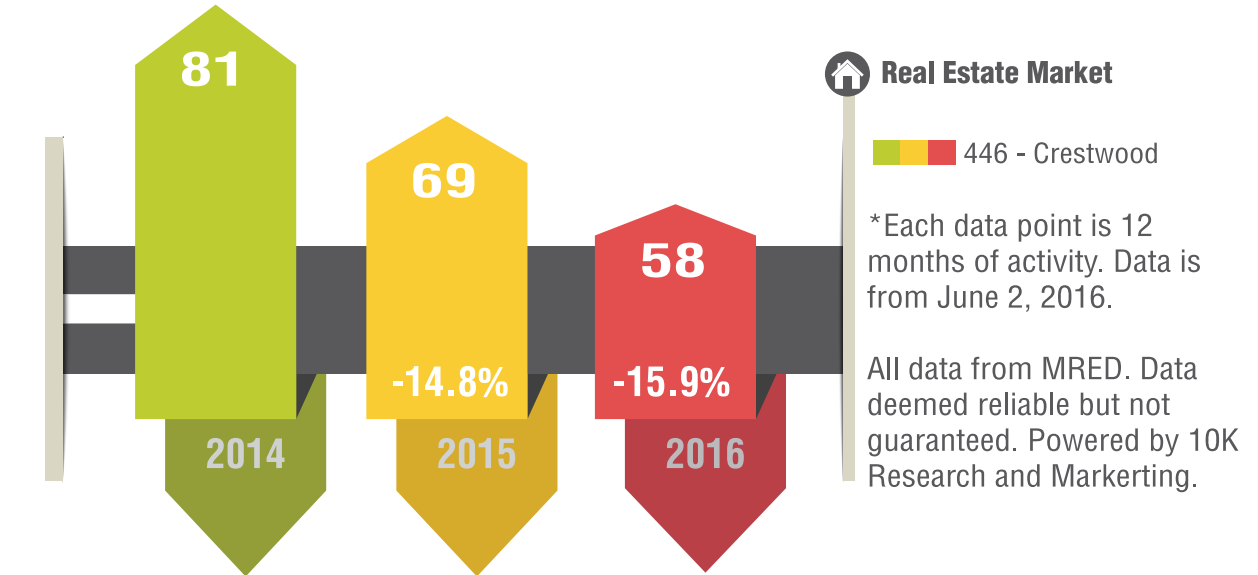

On a related note, recently I was forced to confront a post put up on social media that alleged that a strip club was coming to Crestwood. That post was a complete fabrication and when confronted, the person who put up the post edited it to inform everyone that it was not true. People don't seem to realize that information posted on social media has a real impact on their neighbors and can seriously affect everyone who lives here. When a developer is considering investing millions of dollars to bring a large commercial enterprise to our village, a false post asserting that a strip club is coming here can jeopardize those plans. It's important to understand and spread the word that while Americans are free to say or print whatever they want, once they do, there may be consequences to what they printed or said. When posting on social media, act responsibly because you will be held accountable.

This month we celebrate the most important men in our lives — our fathers. June 19th is the day to let Dad know how important he is to you. I wish all of the fathers in Crestwood a peaceful and enjoyable day!

June 14th is also the day we commemorate the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as our national emblem. On June 14th, 1777, the Second Continental Congress adopted the symbol we proudly refer to today as "Old Glory." I hope you will join with me in showing the colors throughout our village.

Sincerely,

Mayor Lou Presta

Shredding will be done for $10 for the first box and $5 for each additional box and all the proceeds from this event will be donated to the Special Olympics.

Public Notice - Village Parking

Crestwood Village ordinance prohibits parking on any village street between 2am and 6am. The reason for this ordinance is so police will be alerted to abandoned vehicles or suspicious vehicles that require investigation. This ordinance also ensures that all streets throughout the Village will be open to fire and rescue equipment in the event of an overnight emergency. This is especially necessary in areas where narrow streets can block large fire trucks. We will continue to enforce this ordinance. Thank you for your cooperation with this ordinance. The initial fine for this violation is $75.00. This is a Village-wide ordinance. PLEASE BE SURE THAT YOUR LATE NIGHT AND OVERNIGHT GUESTS ARE MADE AWARE OF THIS AS WELL!

Red Light Cameras Now Operational

The Village of Crestwood would like to remind residents that the red-light cameras located at Cicero Ave. and Midlothian Turnpike are currently active. Following the completion of the construction phase, cameras will be actively catching violations at Cicero Ave. and Cal Sag Rd., and Cicero Ave. and 135th Street within the upcoming weeks. Implementation of this type of program will reduce possible fatalities and severe personal injury due to driver carelessness and/or reckless disregard for the law. Red-light cameras are only a cost to those who break the law, so please respect the rules of the road. Thank you for helping to keep our roadways safe by remembering to choose safety. Stop on red.

Walker Park Missile ‘Honest John’ Due for Restoration

Our Walker Park missile needs some TLC — or at least some sheet metal, paint and polish! Tradesmen from town and their apprenticeship program will take lead on the restoration of the Walker Park missile. It has been difficult the in tracking down its arrival history and mostly it is lore, indicating that it was an Honest John missile, Army issue that was surplus. These missiles were rendered obsolete and hence military equipment was shared with towns in patriotic pride. The Recreation Department and Art Council will meet to discuss plans on this enhancement. Next up ... the sign!

Specifications of the Walker Park ‘Honest John’

- The Honest John was a long-range artillery rocket capable of carrying an atomic or high explosive warhead. It was a free-flight rocket as opposed to a guided missile.
- The rocket was 27 feet long, 30 inches in diameter, weighed 5,800 pounds, used a solid propellant and had a range of 12 miles.
- It was first fired at White Sands in 1951. In the spring of 1954, the Honest John was deployed as an interim system. This was the first US tactical nuclear weapon.
- The Basic (M31) Honest John system was first deployed in 1954. It was replaced by the Improved (M50) Honest John in 1961, which reduced the system’s weight, shortened its length, and increased its range.
- We're looking for the story on how the Honest John missile came to Crestwood. Do you remember how the Village ended up with this piece of history? Please let us know! Write to us at info@crestwoodadviser.com.

Village Seeks Funds to Improve Caesar Park and Parking at Stadium and Senior

In May, the Village submitted an application for funding to improve the parking lots at Standard Bank Stadium and the Biela Senior Center. These parking lot improvement plans are all part of a master plan to bring needed renovations to Caesar Park as well as parking for this important Village asset.

This master plan was developed in collaboration with the Village Board and the Recreation Commission during 2015 to seek recreation grants through the Illinois Open Space and Land Acquisition Program. Unfortunately, due to the budget stalemate in Springfield, no funds were grant-allocated for 2015 or 2016 statewide. However, Mayor Lou Presta has redirected efforts to seek funds from other agencies and non-profits.

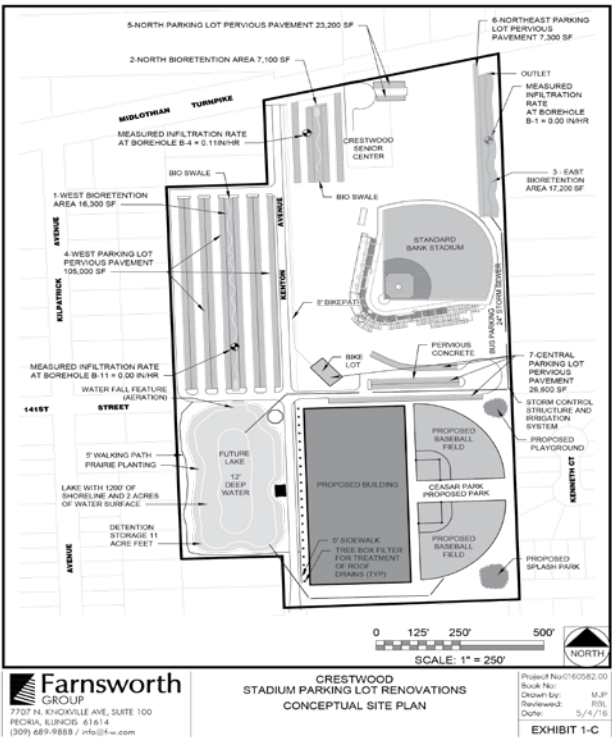

The proposed parking lot improvements are to be funded through a “green infrastructure” grant from the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago (MWRD). Green infrastructure refers to the design of pavement and storm water retention to prevent excess “runoff” of rainwater during rain events. Instead, the storm water is “captured” or retained onsite through permeable or porous pavement and through the use of bio-swales and rain gardens. The permeable pavement allows water to soak through the surface and into the ground. Bio-swales and rain gardens collect and store water, which is filtered into the soil. All these efforts reduce the amount of runoff that goes into the storm sewers and into our creeks and the Cal-Sag Channel.

The mayor and Board of Trustees are seeking a $2 million grant to replace the stadium’s and senior center’s parking lots with green infrastructure designs that will capture a large portion of storm water runoff.

Other aspects of this master plan include a possible multipurpose building or air support dome for indoor sports; a small fishing lake on the vacant Kenton Avenue lot across from Caesar Park; and a re-purposed Caesar Park including a softball and baseball fields, a new play lot and a splash park.

While funding for new parks in the State of Illinois remains very difficult at this time, the mayor and

Board of Trustees believes this plan creates a vision of this important part of Crestwood that can be enhanced in the future. “I remain committed to seeing every opportunity to improve our parks and community centers so that our residents can enjoy an even better Crestwood in the years to come,” said Mayor Presta. “The Board and I are excited about this plan and will seek every avenue to find outside funds to see this vision become a reality.”

Leo Club Cooks for, Serves Homeless

The past several years, Leo Club students from Shepard High School have visited St. Anne Church in Hazelcrest to serve a meal to the homeless. This year, they cooked, too.

“We also purchased the ingredients and prepared the meals to serve up to 100 people,” said faculty co-sponsor Jennifer Klein.

The other faculty co-sponsor, Erin Quinlan, teaches culinary arts.

“My Foods and Nutrition students prepared brownies, BLT pasta salad, baked beans, and a mixed green salad to serve 100 people,” Quinlan said.

Another culinary art teacher, Dan Solski, had his students prepare sloppy joes.

“One of the clients at St. Anne’s said it was ‘the bes3t they’ve ever had.’ It gave our students a chance to help others while learning preparation techniques and cooking methods,” Quinlan said.

Leo Club students also baked cupcakes and made frosting for the brownies to complete the meal. After serving at the church, Klein, Quinlan and their students stayed to clean up.

Leo Clubs are the youth organization arm of the Lion's Club.

U.S. Air Force Honors Shepard JROTC

Last month the U.S. Air Force recognized the Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps program from Shepard High School with the Outstanding Organization Award for community service.

“This is a huge accomplishment for our cadets. Each unit must average at least eight hours of community service per cadet for the school year in order to earn this award,” said Major (ret.) Dan Johnson, the senior aeronautical science instructor at Shepard.

JROTC students from volunteered for many events in the Shepard community including providing colorguard services for the Veterans Day ceremony at Independence Junior High School; reading with pre-school children for the Book Buddies program at the Crestwood Public Library; and, raising thousands for pediatric cancer research for the St. Baldrick’s Foundation.

Master Sergeant (ret.) Chris Saberniak also serves as an aeronautical science instructor at Shepard.

Nathan Hale Community Garden Gives Back | By Chris Looby and Jen Battistoni

The Nathan Hale Middle School community garden began as a passing notion between two teachers. Chris Looby, 8th grade Social Studies teacher, and Jen Battistoni, 8th grade English Language Arts teacher, are the “master chefs” and sponsors of the 8th Grade Cooking Club. Each year, the Cooking Club sponsors a food drive that donates all of the non-perishable food items to the Oak Lawn, Ill., Ronald McDonald House. Following the food drive, students learn about sourcing fresh food. They are introduced to farm-to-table eating and locally grown food versus food that is mass-produced.

With Nathan Hale Middle School being a Title I school, acquiring resources can often be a challenge, so their goal was to come up with a way to save money on purchases for Cooking Club. The idea of a community garden soon blossomed. It would serve both as a way for students to garner free produce and to give back to the community.

The funding for the community garden was obtained through grants and donations. The two main financial contributors were the Cook County Farm Bureau and Marquette Bank of Orland Park. Three 4’ x 10’ raised garden beds were installed by local carpenter Randy DeBoer with the volunteer help of Nathan Hale staff members. Soil was donated by Jabaay’s Outdoor Creations Inc. in Frankfort, Ill., and a painted picnic table by Home Depot in Oak Lawn, Ill. Through the fundraising and club activities, the students have learned that it is impossible to put a price tag on the feeling you get when you do something good for another person within the community. With the beautiful weather that Tom Skilling has predicted for the Chicagoland area, the students began the planting process. The produce will be used for next year’s cooking club, as well as for students donating baskets to Our Lady of the Ridge SSPADS homeless shelter in Chicago Ridge, Ill. It’s the students’ way of giving back to their community.

Nathan Hale Middle School’s 8th Grade Cooking Club created a community garden this year to help feed the homeless and to learn about the benefits of a sustainable, locally grown harvest.

Thousands Turn Out for Beverly Breast Cancer Walk

More than 15,000 turned out on Mother's Day for this year's annual Beverly Breast Cancer Walk.

The Village of Crestwood was well represented at the Beverly Breast Cancer Walk on Mother's Day. No less than 54 participants from Crestwood boarded the bus to add to the more than 15,000 walkers who took part in this memorable occasion on a bright and sunny, picture-perfect Mother's Day.

Village Trustee Theresa Flynn and dozens of Crestwood supporters from the Village took their place on the bus and in the ranks of those walking to support the fight against this terrible disease, but this year they were joined by Team Pink Ladies, making for a more robust statement. The Village would like to issue a special thank you to Mr. Dean Vallas, local business owner and friend to the community, for providing a wonderful coach bus to deliver participants safely and in comfort to the event.

The Eagle Uniform Co. is a tight-knit business run for the benefit of first responders everywhere. The Eagle crew includes (L-R): Bob Benedetto, Ashley Mahoney, Jose Tiscareño, Janet Tuma and Mark Ott.

Crestwood’s Eagle Uniform Co. Gets New Makeover

If you’re a member of the police or fire department in your municipality and find yourself in need of a uniform or the tactical gear necessary to do your work, there’s a place here in Crestwood that has what you need. The Eagle Uniform Co. (4732 W 137th St.) has been in operation for decades, but if you haven’t been in there lately, you’ll want to give it a look. New ownership and a whole-store renovation have made a big difference to the shopping experience, and the friendly staff there is keen to assist with everything from gear selection to uniform alterations and repair. We spoke with Bob Benedetto, who operates the location, to talk about the transition and renovation.

“The business has been here for 20-plus years,” Benedetto says. To hear him tell of it, the business rather looked it, too. “It got kind of stale and cluttered — it was an old business, so I came in, a new owner came in, and we revamped the entire place.”

And what a difference the effort has made. The new space looks fresh and inviting, with a robust inventory to match. “We do police; we do fire; and we also do postal uniforms. We have a license to carry postal uniforms, also.” But that’s hardly the extent of the business. In addition to uniforms, you’ll find an array of tactical gear and communications equipment appropriate for the men and women who work in the police, fire, EMS and security industries.

Benedetto was brought into the business by his friend, the owner of Eagle Uniform, Steve Marcoux. Benedetto is a local policeman and is well acquainted with the needs of his fellow officers and other first responders. He also has the connections to help bring in business from other municipalities.

MWRD Offers ‘Restore the Canopy’ Tree Giveaway

The Metropolitan Water Reclamation District is giving away oak saplings in an effort to restore the tree canopy in the Chicagoland area.

The Metropolitan Water Reclamation District has started an initiative to restore the tree canopy in the Chicago metropolitan region by purchasing and distributing — free of charge — 100,000 oak saplings. The saplings will be given to community groups, schools and municipalities in Chicago and suburban Cook County. Trees are being distributed every Wednesday from 9:00am to noon at the Calumet, Egan, Hanover Park, Kirie, O’Brien and Stickney Water Reclamation Plants. Trees help absorb rain and carbon dioxide, reduce the urban heat island effect, and produce oxygen, in addition to providing aesthetic benefits for streets, homes and schools.

June Farmers Market on Hold

Last summer, several Village staff members and Village officials reached out to Farmers Markets from Frankfort to Evergreen Park in search for vendors. There were many conversations on the hows/whens and probablilty. At this time the market appears saturated, and securing a fruit and vegetable vendor is the most difficult. It is our belief that produce is the heart of a true market. Several other vendors expressed interest, including bakers, honey, soap makers, jams etc., but we have to go back to the mainstay: the fresh produce. Until we are confident in a firm vendor, no market will go forward, understanding that it must be profitable for that vendor. We are interested in a possible market committee to meet in the fall, and urge residents that have farm connections to participate in these conversations. Until then, shop local, shop Crestwood, and visit one of the last “farms” in town, adjacent to Nathan Hale!

More than 250 pounds of drugs diverted from drain to improve area water quality

The Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago (MWRD) collected 257 pounds of drugs in less than two days for safe disposal as part of the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration’s (DEA) National Drug Take Back Day.

The event, held at three of the MWRD’s water reclamation plants (WRP) and headquarters downtown, provided a safe, convenient and responsible means for disposing prescription drugs, while also educating the general public about the potential for abuse of medications and potential harm to the environment. Between April 29 and 30, the Stickney WRP in Cicero collected 139.4 pounds of medicine, while the O’Brien WRP in Skokie amassed 88.8 pounds and the Calumet WRP on the far South Side took in four pounds. In addition, the MWRD’s Main Office Building at 100 E. Erie St., collected 25 pounds.

Drugs are often mistakenly deposited in toilets and drains, after which they are destined for local waterways. Water treatment facilities are not designed to remove minute concentrations of pharmaceuticals, and the chemicals could eventually wind up in area streams and waterways and have a negative impact on water quality. Numerous studies show significant negative effects that pharmaceutical drugs have on aquatic life.

“It’s important not to dispose of medications down the drain because they end up in the water supply. Controlling what goes down the drain is the easiest and most effective way to protect our environment,” said MWRD President Mariyana Spyropoulos. “We are pleased to partner with the DEA on this important event. By collecting these drugs, we are offering various environmental benefits to our personal health and our water resources.”

To prevent or reduce accidental contamination of streams, rivers and lakes, the MWRD has worked with the DEA Chicago Field Division to participate in the initiative each year since the event was launched in 2010. This latest collection eclipses the last Drug Take Back Day in September 2015, when the MWRD collected 237 pounds of unwanted pharmaceuticals.

There are many ways to reduce the amount of pharmaceuticals before they reach treatment facilities and/or the waterways. The first is to complete the course of treatment as prescribed by the physician. For over-the-counter products, a supply should be monitored and stored in one location at home to prevent the purchase of additional or extras. Homeowners are encouraged never to pour the pharmaceuticals down the toilet or drain or give or sell them to others. For those with unwanted medicine unable to participate in the Drug Take Back Day, there are various police stations and municipalities across Cook County that allow medicine to be deposited throughout the year. The city of Chicago collects unwanted medicines 24 hours per day, seven days per week at its police facilities as well. For a complete list, visit www.mwrdr.org and click on “Unwanted Medicine.”

Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago (MWRD) staff members Elle Bradley and Bettina Gregor helped contribute medications to the MWRD’s collection to ensure proper disposal and help protect the environment.

Midwest’s First Single-Site Robotic Gallbladder Removal Using the da Vinci Xi at Ingalls

“Scar-less” surgery made its debut at Ingalls Hospital May 3, 2016, when general surgeon Gary Peplinski, M.D., F.A.C.S., performed the very first single-site gallbladder removal with the da Vinci Xi robotic surgery system. And because he used the latest-generation da Vinci system to do it, the revolutionary surgery was also a first for the entire Midwest.

The patient, a 60-year-old suburban Chicago woman, successfully underwent surgery in the morning and went home the very same day.

Traditional laparoscopic gallbladder removal, introduced in the early 1990s, involves four small incisions, through which the surgeon inserts instruments to remove the gallbladder. Robotic assisted surgery enables the same operation through one small incision.

“Single-site robotic gallbladder removal is performed as an outpatient surgery,”

Dr. Peplinski explained. “The procedure involves a single one-inch incision in the patient’s umbilicus (belly button) through which the gallbladder is removed.”

When the tiny incision heals, the area looks like a normal umbilicus, leaving virtually no scars from the surgery. With only one incision, other potential advantages include less pain after surgery and less risk of infection.

Ingalls invested in the da Vinci Xi robotic surgical system earlier this year, the most advanced robotic system currently available. Dozens of successful surgeries have been performed since then.

Single-site surgery is available for select patients with gallbladder disease. Dr. Peplinski said other single-site surgeries at Ingalls are on the horizon, including single-site hysterectomy.

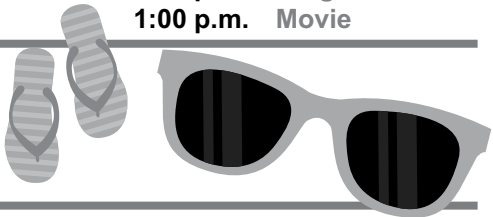

Gary Peplinski, M.D., F.A.C.S., performed the Midwest’s first single-site robotic gallbladder removal with the da Vinci Xi robotic surgery system at Ingalls.

Crestwood History: Did You Know?

- The Crestwood Civil Defense was founded in 1962, under the leadership of Ward Hardin. In 1976, the name was changed to the Emergency Services and Disaster Agency.
- The first section of Crestwood Gardens was established in 1963, making it the second subdivision of single-family homes.
- Willow Creek School, located at 135th and Laramie Ave., saw many elementary school graduations in the early 1900s, but by the late 1960s, the building had fallen into disuse, and was renovated to become a library. Arson destroyed most of the building in January 1973.
- Crestwood’s valuation rose to $31 million in 1976, with an estimated population of 8,500 people.

Crestwood CRUSH Baseball Association: Big Leaguers for a Day

The Crestwood CRUSH Baseball Association would like to thank the Windy City Thunderbolts for a great day. The CRUSH baseball teams started off the day with a team practice and a scrimmage game on the field at Standard Bank Stadium. The youngsters got the opportunity to experience what it's like to be professional ballplayers for a day. They also took team pictures in front of the giant scoreboard and finished the day with a pizza party sponsored by the Saint Xavier University's Men's Baseball Program.

The 2016 CRUSH Sponsors include the following Crestwood businesses: Public Safety Direct, Windy City Thunderbolts, Hollywood Park, Culvers and Bullpen Sports Facility. Also a huge thank-you to the Saint Xavier University – Men's Baseball Program. Thanks to all of these sponsors for their support of the Crestwood CRUSH Baseball Association.

This year, there are two Pinto teams (ages 6-8 years), one Mustang team (ages 9-10 years) and one Bronco team (ages 11-12 years). The Crestwood CRUSH plays their games at Playfield Park located at 12800 W. Playfield Drive. For more information about Crestwood Baseball, contact Joe, the Director of Baseball Operations at (708) 371-4800, ext. 2014.

2016 Log Rolling Open Coming to Centennial Park

Looking to put something different on your activities calendar?

The 2016 Log Rolling Open is coming to Orland Park's Lake Sedgewick in Centennial Park (15600 West Ave., Orland Park) on June 11th, from 12:00-5:00pm. The competition will be broadcast locally by Comcast SportsNet.

Log Rolling FAQ:

What is log rolling? Is this for real?

- Yep! Log rolling is just what you think it is: Opponents step onto a floating log, and through a combination of balance, nerve and skill, use their feet to spin the log, stop it or reverse direction in the attempt to throw off the opposition into the water. Competitors are not allowed to touch their opponents or to cross the centerline during a match. A proper match constitutes the best of three out of five falls.

How do they keep the logs uniform and the competition fair?

- The logs used in U.S. Log Rolling Association (USLRA) competitions are Western red cedars — very buoyant — and are lathe-turned to specific diameters. Amateur rollers always roll on carpeted logs, but some competitions for Elite (professional) and Master rollers use uncarpeted logs.

What do competitors wear on their feet?

- Typically, competitive log rollers wear a tennis shoe or aquatic sport shoe with solid traction, but Elite and Master rollers will wear specially made spiked shoes when rolling on uncarpeted logs.

What is the diameter of the logs used?

- A USLRA competition will involve three to four logs. The first log will be 15 inches in diameter for men, and 14 inches for women, striped with red. If a winner has not been declared when time is called, the competitors move on to the next smaller log, typically decreasing by one inch in diameter at each stage, down to 12 inches.

During the 2016 Professional Log Rolling Open, STIHL TIMBERSPORTS® will perform their various disciplines, both pro and collegiate, at the Tinley Park Convention Center July 15-16th.
